Steph Curry and the Warriors lost in the postseason play in tournament last season, but even without an injured Klay Thompson, Golden State proved a fun team to follow. Curry led the NBA in scoring, joining Michael Jordan as one of two players to win the title at age 33 or older.

Golden State boasted a top five defense last season and won behind Curry's scoring touch. The Warriors went 9–2 in games in which Curry scored 40 plus points.

This season, the roster is more balanced with young players, James Wiseman, Jonathan Kuminga and Moses Moody and with the Thompson's expected return from injury.

The Trail Blazers have their own star in Damian Lillard and enter the season with a lot to prove.
